

Explore Allen Parish Libraries Educational Resources

Explore the brand-new Educational Resource Center at the Oberlin Branch of Allen Parish Libraries! This advanced exhibit offers various educational games, puzzles, and activities that fascinate learners of all ages. It is a treasure trove of information and materials that can boost learning and development, particularly for early learners. Using educational resources from the library allows students to learn various subjects in an enjoyable and captivating way. Make sure to seize the chance to utilize these resources inside the library during your visit.

Starting in August, Educational Resource Centers will also be available at the Oakdale and Kinder branches. Come and discover this incredible new resource at APL!
